This Commission perused the list of documents as contained in the aforesaid letter of the PIO, the E.E (PWD), Sangram Division and found that the information/documents brought in by the representative of the PIO were, indeed, not complete as per the list contained in the RTI application of the appellant. It was found that against number of points, the PIO had mentioned either 'not found' or 'not available' while against some of the points, the PIO has stated 'it shall be furnished'.

The appellant expressing his disappointment over the absence of PIO in the hearing pleaded that instead of deputing his PA or other staff he should attend the hearing to explain the reasons for furnishing the incomplete / misleading information, thereby violating the provisions of RTI Act.

This Commission, upon hearing the parties and on perusal of the documents brought in by the representative of the PIO, directs the PIO to furnish:

1. all the left out documents such as, among others, the copy of Trading Licence of the firms, copy of sanction orders, the MB as per the work order and amount paid to individual firm separately, the details of deduction made against GST/Royalty, the copy of LOC/LoA issued to the SBI by the CE, the cheque counterfoils or the RTGS/NEFT records of payment made to the firms/ enterprise separately, Money Receipts, the work completion certificate by the EE concerned ;
2. declaration by way of an affidavit with cogent reasons in respect of the documents / information which are not available with the PIO in terms of rule 5(vi) of the A.P Information Commission (Appeal Procedure) Rules, 2005.

The PIO shall comply with the above direction with intimation to this Commission within 3(three) weeks from the date of receipt of this order, whereafter the next date of hearing, if required, shall be fixed.

Given under my hand and seal of this Commission on this 19th February, 2025.
